Myrtle Beach, SC (07/18/2020) - The Academy of General Dentistry (AGD) is pleased to announce that Courtney Suggs, DMD, of Myrtle Beach, SC, recently received the prestigious Fellowship Award, a prestigious credential that recognizes AGD member's commitment to excellence in dental education. Dr. Suggs accepted this award along with 340 other recipients.

The AGD Fellowship Award is presented to dentists looking to provide the highest quality of dental care by remaining current in their profession. In order to receive this award, Dr. Suggs completed 500 hours of continuing dental education, passed a comprehensive written exam and fulfilled three years of continuing membership with the AGD. As a recipient of this award, Dr. Suggs has joined an elite group of more than 17,105 members of the dental community who understand that great smiles and good oral health for their patients are the result of going above and beyond basic requirements. The Fellowship Award symbolizes excellence in the dental profession and a commitment to providing exceptional patient care.

“Becoming an AGD Fellow means a dentist has taken part in some of the most rigorous continuing dental education programs today,” said Connie White, DDS, FAGD, AGD President. “Only six percent of all dentists have achieved this designation, and we are proud to honor Dr. Suggs for her commitment and dedication to provide her patients with advanced and exceptional oral health care. She is exceeding industry requirements and paving a path of success distinguishing herself professionally amongst her peers and exemplifying her allegiance to the dental community.”

According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics there are an estimated 144,000 general dentists who are employed directly in the field of dentistry. A general dentist is the primary care provider for patients of all ages and is responsible for the diagnosis, treatment, management and overall coordination of services related to patients' oral health needs.

Dr. Suggs graduated from The Medical University of South Carolina in 2015 and currently practices dentistry in Myrtle Beach, SC. In addition to the AGD, Dr. Suggs is a member of the American Dental Association.
